MARY E. D'ANDREA, CLERK

DEPUTY CLERK

MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

Comes now the Plaintiff & his counsel in the above entitled civil action John Richard Dae, as a layman unlettered in the arts & sciences of laws & legal procedures within the United States & now files his Motion For Enlargement of Time, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P., Rule 6(b), and waives service of process.

1. On or about August 24, 2000, Plaintiff John Richard Dae, filed his Motion For A Temporary Restraining Order And/or An Preliminary Injunction, Order to Show Cause And Temporary Restraining Order, Affidavit And Memoranda of Law in support of Motion For A Temporary Restraining Order And/or An Preliminary Injunction, herein this case.

2. On or about October 4, 2000, Defendant Dr. Clark filed his Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's Request For Injunction Relief herein this case.

3. On or about October 19, 2000, Connection Defendants filed their Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion For Temporary Restraining Order And/or An Expedited Preliminary Injunction, herein this case.

4. Due to the facts that the Plaintiff has other legal obligations in other civil actions which he is presently working on now and due to the facts that the Prison limits the amounts of pay which it provides an indigent inmate such as this Plaintiff, herein, p month and this Plaintiff does not have enough paper and postage left for this month to meet his legal obligation. In the other cases & this case too, ~~because~~ and due to the fact that this prison limits the amount of time he can get to spend in the R HU Mini Law Library doing legal research, he is unable to complete the necessary legal investigations needed to prepare and file his Reply Brief to Defendant Dr. Clark's Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's Request for Injunctive Relief herein, by the present due date for such of October 18, 2000, and he is likewise unable to complete the necessary legal investigations needed to prepare & file his Reply Brief to Corrections Defendant's Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for A Temporary Restraining Order And/or An Expedited Preliminary Injunction, herein, by the date for such of October 24, 2000, and thus he requests an enlargement of time of thirty (30) days from this date including November 10, 2000, in which to file his Reply Brief to Defendant Dr. Clark's Brief in Opposition to Plaintiff's Request for Injunctive Relief and his Reply Brief to Plaintiff's Motion for Temporary Restraining Order And/or An Expedited Preliminary Injunction herein this case.

(w) HEREFORE, ~~this~~ this Court should grant this Motion in full:

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED
